Department of Historic Resources

Organization Chart Updated May 2013 (to division level)

Department of Historic Resources

(Identifies, evaluates, & registers historic places and provides information and assistance to public and private entities to aid in their preservation & use for the economic, educational and cultural benefit of Virginia communities.)

Policy & Planning

(Strategic and Emergency Planning, Legislative Liaison, Public Relations & Outreach, Administrative Services, Preservation Grants, Battlefield Grants)

Administrative Services Division

(Budget Planning & Management, Procurement, Grants Management, Accounts Payable, Information Technology, & other administrative services)

Survey & Register Division

(Conduct & provide guidance to survey & identify historic properties & districts, maintain & provide accurate records on those historic places, manage process to evaluate & list properties on the Virginia Landmarks Register & National Register of Historic Places)

Preservation Programs

(Conducts & maintains survey information on historic properties, manages both state & federal historic registers & rehabilitation tax credit processes, provides guidance & technical assistance for publicly funded & licensed projects, accepts & manages easements to protect historic properties, manages historical highway markers)

Division of Archaeology

(Conducts field research, manages archaeological collections, & provides technical assistance, artifacts, & educational materials to bring Virginia's archaeology to light.)

Community Services Division

(System of one-to-three person field offices to provide or coordinate services to communities in four regional service areas)

Preservation Incentives Division

(Provide technical guidance & manage process to certify qualified rehabilitation projects for state & federal tax credits, handle acquisition & management of preservation easements)

Review & Compliance Division

(Guidance & technical assistance to assist public agencies responsible for considering impacts to historic resources through state & federal environmental & historic preservation review processes)